Iv spent at least 3 hours a day trying to get this fish im in a cave area near the lava and still not even catch a glimpse of the guide voodoo fish, I'm doing something wrong here??? Home and Guides - Terraria - If there is one thing in Terraria that is relatively peaceful, it sits on the shore of a large body of water, hooking the bait and pumping out the bait. Of course, while fishing you need to watch not only for the moment when you get bitten, but also on the enemies creeping up behind you. In this guide to fishing Terraria, we'll tell you how to fish in Terraria, detail all the rewards of a fishing quest, and give you the locations of each fish quest in the game. As you fish in Terraria Fishing Rewards quest (en) quest fish locations How to fish in Terraria Fish in Terraria, you have to unlock an Angler NPC in your city. You also need to create a fishing rod (the most basic just need 8 wood and a main table) and some bait. Buy the bug catching the net from the trader and catch some bugs to fly. Ponds are your best choice, although there are others in the underground regions who have a higher chance of bait bait. If you have a fishing rod and bait, head to the pond (or make your own big pond with buckets). We're talking about the size of a small pond in which you can fully immerse yourself. Stand at the edge and use the fishing rod. When you see the bait bob up and down, or hear the blub sound, use the rod again to reel in your catch. Fishing in lava Yes, you can fish in the lava, but you have to use specific items to help you catch them. Here are just some of the elements that make fishing in the lava possible. Hotline Fishing Hook (full of 25 or more fishing quests) Lavaproof Fishing Hook (fish this hook from lava) Magma Snail as bait (catch in the underground world bioma with Lavaproof Error Pure or Golden Bug Pure) Lavafly as bait (catch in the underworld biom with Lavaproof Error Pure or Golden Bug Pure) Hell Butterfly as bait (catch in the underworld unlocks this opportunity to take on a fishing quest. You will be able to take part in one fishing quest on a game day and there are rewards for completing each of them. I only bump into one problem though. I don't have a Fishing Rod hotline, and he keeps asking me to fish out of the underworld. It's really annoying as I want to get more quest items but can't. I also really love these Inferno potions, but can't fish on the ingredients because the fishing rod is hard to get. This offer is quite small, but I feel it will make fishing a much better experience for the players. I suggest that the angler will never give you any fishing quests in the underworld until you have completed 25 quests. After 25 quests, the Fishing Rod hotline should be given to you rather than a small chance. Once 25 quests have been completed, it will have a 1/150 chance of being received. This can help players who want to complete Angler quests to complete more, and put an end to the furious search of the Fishing Rod hotline. It also allows players to fish in the lava after a good number of quests as a reward, seeing how the potion from Flarefin Koi/Obsidifish can be quite powerful. Thank you so much for reading my offer! If you have any comments or constructive criticism, please tell me! So long! good idea though I'm not really a fish I feel it will help people who do fishing passing I think 25 quests are too small, maybe 35 or so. In the case, support. If memory serves, you can catch underground fish in layers of cave instead. it clearly says that Demonic Clams / Guide Fish /Hungry fish can be caught in caves, you don't need to fish in the lava/underground world at all. This unusually Golden Fishing Rod is guaranteed, but the Fishing Hook hotline is not. Also, Vicky says the hotline is tight only and Golden is not. The hotline should be a guaranteed reward in X quests (regardless of the hard old), with a Golden Guaranteed Reward on quests X and Y. For example, if the hotline is guaranteed on 30 quests, Then Golden can be guaranteed a reward for 60 quests. Each quest after that can use its usual reward rates (1/150 and 1/250 respectively.) It clearly says that Demonic clams / Guide Voodoo fish / Hungry fish can be caught in caves, you do not need to fish in the lava / Underground world at all. Thank you for letting me know this! I must not have seen it while reading about it. Oh. But, it might still make sense if the player only got the Demonic Hellfish/Voodoo Fish Guide/Hungry Fish after getting the Fishing Rod hotline, as they kind of fit the underworld/lava theme. But anyway, thanks for allowing me to know that! A what!
